Representatives of J.O. Propres, the 15-organization coalition running the Play Fair 2008 campaign in French-speaking Belgium, were out in full force at the Esperanzah world music festival August 1-3 in Abbaye de Floreffe, Belgium. Over 8,000 people signed onto a Play Fair petition directed at the Belgian Olympic Committee, while supporters took part in a simulated 12,000 KM bicycle race to Beijing and experienced the production of Olympic flags in a sweatshop.
